ADVANCE OF GERMANS LIKE MOVING FORWARD OF NATION

By PHILIP GIBBS. Paris,-When I escaped from Amiens, before the tunnel was broken up, and the Germans entered into possession of the town on August 28, the front of the allied armies was in a crescent from Abbeville, south of Amiens on wooded heights, and thence in a irregular line to south of

The British forces, under Sir John French, were at the left of the center. supporting the heavy thrust-forward of the main German advance, while the right was commanded by General

A Million on the Move. On Sunday afternoon fighting was resumed along the whole line. The German vanguard by this time had been supported by a fresh army corps, which had been brought from Bel-

At least 1,000,000 men were on the move, pressing upon the allied forces with a ferocity of attack which has never before been equaled. Their cavalry swept across a great tract of country, squadron by squadron, like the mounted hordes of Attila, but armed with the dreadful weapons of modern warfare.

Their artillery was in enormous numbers and their columns advanced under cover of it, not like an army, but rather like a moving nation-I do not think, however, with equal pressure at all parts of the line. It formed itself into a battering ram with a pointed end and this was thrust at the heart of the English wing.

Impossible to Resist. It was impossible to resist this onslaught. If the British forces had stood against it they would have been crushed and broken. Our gunners were magnificent and shelled the advancing German columns so that the dead lay heaped up along the way which was leading down to Paris; but, as one of them told me:

"It made no manner of difference. As soon as we had smashed one lot, another followed, column after column, and by sheer weight of numbers. We could do nothing to check them."

After this the British forces fell back, fighting all the time. The line of the allies was in the shape of a 'V"; the Germans thrust their main attack deep into the angle. This position remained the same until Monday, or rather had completed itself by that date, the retirement of the troops being maintained with masterly skill and without undue haste.

River Choked With Dead. Meanwhile General Pau was sustaining a terrific attack on the French center by the German left center, which culminated on (date omitted). The River Olse, which runs between beautiful meadows, was choked with corpses and red with blood.

From an eye witness of this great battle, an officer of an infantry regiment who escaped with a slight wound. had been repelled by a series of brilliant bayonet and cavalry charges.

"The Germans," he said, "had the elite of their army engaged against us, including the Tenth army corps and the Imperial guard, but the heroism of our troops was sublime. Every man knew that the safety of France depended upon him and was ready to sacrifice his life, if need be, with joyful anthusiasmi Gave Great Punishment. They not only resisted the enemy's attack, but took the offensive, and, in spite of their overpowering numbers, gave them tremendous punishment. They had to recoil before our guns.

"Hundreds of them were bayoneted and hundreds were hurled into the river. The whole field of battle was utlined by dead and dying men whom they had to abandon. Certainly their sses were enormous, and I felt that the German retreat was in full swing and that we could claim a real victory for the time being."

Pau Compelled to Yield. Nevertheless the inevitable hapned, owing to the vast reserves of the enemy, who brought up four divisions, and General Pau was compelled to give ground

On Tuesday German skirmishers with light artillery were coming southward, and the sound of their field guns greeted my ears. Presently I saw the figure of a French dragoon, with his carbine slung behind his back. He was standing by the side of a number of gunpowder hags. A little arther away were little groups of soldiers at work by two bridges, one over a stream and one over a road. They were working very calmly and I could see what they were doing. They were mining the bridges to blow them up at a given signal.

As I went farther I saw the streets were strewn with broken bottles and littered with wire entanglements, artfully and carefully made.

Trap for German Army. It was obvious that there was very grim business being done and that the oldiers were waiting for something to happen. At the railway station I quickly learned the truth. The Germans were only a few miles away in great force. At any moment they might come down, smashing everything in their way.

The station master, a brave old type, and one or two porters, had demanded to stay on to the last. "We are here," he said, as though the Germans would have to reckon with him, but he was emphatic in his request for me to leave at once if another train could be got away, which was very uncertain.

SENDS ARMY THROUGH

New York.-A Russian army of 72,-000 men, transported from Archangel, the most northern part of Russia, was anded at Aberdeen on the east coast of Scotland, on the night of August 27, ing to officers and passengers of the Cunard liner Mauretania, which ed New York.

From Aberdeen the troops, it is said, were conveyed on special trains to Harwich, Grimsby, and Dover, there to receive them.

As a matter of fact, after a bad quarter of an hour I was put on the last train to escape from this threatened town, and left it with the sound of German guns in my ears, followed by a dull explosion when the bridge behind me was blown up. Escape Narrowly.

My train, in which there were only four other men, skirted the German army and by a twist in the line almost ran into the enemy's country, but we rushed through the night, and the engine driver laughed and put his oily hand up to salute when I stepped out to the platform of an unknown station.

"The Germans won't get us, after all," he said. "It was a little risky, all the same."

The station was crowded with French soldiers, and they were soon telling me their experiences of the hard fighting in which they had been engaged. They were dirty, unshaven, dusty from head to foot, scorched by the August sun, in tattered uniforms and broken boots; but they were beautiful men for all their dirt, and the laughing courage, quiet confidence and unbragging simplicity with which they assured me that the Germans would soon be caught in a death trap and sent to their destruction filled me with admiration which I cannot express in

All the odds were against them. They had fought the hardest of all actions-the retirement from the fighting line-but they had absolute faith in the ultimate success of the allied arms.

Germans Are Reckless.

London.-A Chronicle correspondent writing from an unarmed town says: "The Germans are displaying extraordinary recklessness, flinging away thousands of lives in the hope of ultimately gaining their end. No doubt the rapid advance of the Russians in eastern Prussia has something to do with this, and is responsible for the frantic and insane haste which characterizes the German attempt in northern France to smash the thin khaki line which so valiantly bars the road toward Compeigne, Soissons and Paris. That stories of German atrocities are not one whit exaggerated may be gathered from the story told me by a sergeant who was wounded in the action near Mons Sunday a week ago.

"As he lay helpless on the ground and the German infantry swept by he could hear, from the imploring cries of the wounded in his front, that they were being ruthlessly put to death by Ordeal is Terrible.

"Closing his eyes and simulating death, the wounded sergeant lay perfectly still. As the Germans passed him he received a violent blow in the chest from the butt end of a rifle which broke one of his ribs. He bore the pain unflinchingly and never moved a muscle, Another Prussian stabbed a wounded man onet as he went past.

"The sergeant's ordeal was a terrible one and he expected every momet to be his last. Ultimately the German advance was broken and their infantry came rolling back, shattered and disordered, leaving behind a trail of dead and wounded. The wounded sergeant was 'picked up by British stretcher bearers and conveyed to the base hospital, where he is now fast recovering. English Are Cheerful.

"Freshly arrived troops from England, who had been pushed forward, arrived in time to participate in the battle. These British re-enforcements had been carrying out strategic movements in troops trains for several days, and in the expressive phraseology of Tommy Atkins, 'they were fed up with the whole thing' and were all eagerness for a brush with the enemy. "Their chance came yesterday, Many were reserves with South African experience, and they marched to the front cheering the French and growling for 'William the Weed,' somehow confusing the emperor with William (of Wied) of Albania, French and English flags were borne at the head of each company.

"They were in fine fettle, 'Are we downhearted?' would shout some one from the ranks, 'no, but William the Weed will be down-hearted by the time we finish with him."

French Kind, Says Dying German. Paris.—The American embassy here s daily in receipt of letters written by dying soldiers, forwarded to it by the French government for transmission to Germany.

One is from a German aviator, who had fallen into the hands of the French. The man wrote: "Good-by dear father and mother; my leg has been crushed. The French officers are very kind." A postscript to this letter, added by French officer, reads:

"At this point the brave fellow died; please forward this to his parents."

Man Germany Honored a Hostage. Paris.-The Petit Parisien points out the irony in the case of M. Ernst Solvay, who with Baron Lambert de Rothschild was taken as a hostage at Brussels. The paper says that Solvay, who is well known for his invention of a process by which soda can be bought at an extremely cheap price, was recently highly honored by European nations. Germany conferred on Solvay one of its highest honors, the gold medal of the Academy of Sciences of where transports were waiting to convey them to Ostend.

BRITAIN TO ALLIES Every precaution was taken by the military authorities to keep the transportation of the foreign soldiers through England from becoming known, and the service on the east coast railway lines was suspended during the 17 hours the troop trains were on the journey.

It was believed that the Russians would be joined at Ostend by 2,000 British marines, who were waiting a style before. The enraptured war-

GERMAN RIGHT IS TURNED BY ALLIES

2,000,000 SAID TO BE ENGAGED IN CONFLICT WHICH HAS RAGED THREE DAYS.

BATTLE FRONT 120 MILES

Position of Both Armies Is Critical. Imperial Guard Commanded by Crown Prince Is Reported to Have Been Defeated.

London.-The right wing of the German army has been turned by French troops under Gen. Joffre, according to unofficial dispatches received here. It is stated, however, that both French and German armies are in critical positions, in which defeat would be absolute disaster. The conflict extends over an irregular line 120 miles from east to west and 50 miles from north

The retreat of the Germans from Lille is declared to be due to their fear of attack from an army of British and Russian forces believed to lish channel.

The troops engaged number more than 2,000,000, the Germans having 1,-000,000 soldiers in France. The forces of the allies, now reinforced, are be lieved to be equal in numbers to the invaders.

The news contained in the French official communication that the Germans had fallen back before the vigorous advance by the allied troops on the line from Nanteuil-Ie-Haudouin to Verdun indicates that the Anglo-French forces have got on the flank of the German right wing, which passed by Paris north, and was marching eastward to join with the crown prince's army coming south.

A Boulogne dispatch to the Evening News says a telegram has been received from Gen. Pau announcing a victory by the allied forces at Precy sur Oise. The imperial guard under Crown Prince Frederick William is re-British force which opposed them.

EGYPT IS ORDERED CLEARED town hall.

German and Austrian Consular Officers Must Go-England Suspects Sultan-Holy War Feared.

Washington.-German and Austrian consular officers have been ordered by British authorities to leave Egypt im-that if she abandons her positions of ourse taken by Italy. Great Britain has informed the ships to Turkish ports to care for land Uber Alles." Christians in case there was a Mohammedan unrising against them. These developments in the highly critical situation brought about by the feeling of the triple entente that Turkey is certain to join the conflict on the side of Germany and Austria were conveyed in official dispatches to the United States government. Great Britain's expulsion of German and Austrian consular officers was taken bere to mean that she had determined to put an end to pro-German propaganda which she believes these consular officials have been circulat

GERMANS ATTACK AT NANCY

Kaiser Said to Be Directing the Fight at Nancy-Allies Satisfied with the Situation.

London.-A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram company from Berlin, by way of Amsterdam, says the Germans are attacking the forts at Nancy, and that Emperor William and the German general staff are there. Reuter dispatch from Ostend says "In a fierce fight near Thisselt (Bergium) the Germans lost 3,000 men. Prisoners were taken to Antwerp."

Paris.-The following official communication was issued here: "First-The allied armies again have come into contact on our left wing. under good conditions, with the right wing of the enemy on the banks of Grand Marne. "Second-Fighting continues on the Vosges. The situation remains un-"Third-Around Paris the engageand the flank of the advance guard of the German right has extended.

Nine Ships Sunk.

Washington.-Nine neutral merchant ships have been destroyed by German dependence Belge of Brussels is aumines, according to British foreign office advices to the British embassy Germans are fortifying the environs

The following have been destroyed: Five Danish, two Dutch, one Norwegian and one Swedish.

British Casualties Are 15,000. London.-It is officially announced war thus far have been 15,000.

Russians Feasted on Tallow Candles. Sir Ernest Shackleton could not get up a real appetite for tallow, but Russian soldiers, according to the entertaining author of "Eat, Drink and be Merry," esteem tallow candles a great luxury. He facetiously describes how they came across a huge store of them among the French baggage on the retreat from Moscow, and summarily snuffed them out of existence. "Never were they consumed in such riors drew them agress their mouths Weekly.

-like a bow across a fiddle-and left only the bare wicks as a proof of how easily their coverings, so necessary for lights, can be readily utilized for livers."

Too Yielding. Binks-Why so gloomy? word in an argument this morning.

as she pleases, anyhow."-New York

GABRIEL SARTORI

Gabriel Sartori, a noted aviator, salled from New York on the French liner Rochambeau to take his place in the French reservists' aviation corps.

have been landed at a port on the Eng- GERMANS CAPTURE AMIENS

Mayor Surrenders to Prevent Killing of Inhabitants-City is 70 Miles North of Paris.

London.-A dispatch from Amiens, France, to the Daily Mail declares that the Germans have taken possesion of Amiens, after three days' fighting. Amiens is the capital of the department of Somme. It is 70 miles directly north of Paris. It is a manufacturing city, has a population of 90,000 and is on the line of the railroad to Boulogne. It is about 50 miles to the west of La Fere and other points in the department of Aisne, where there has been fighting during the past few days between the allied armies and the Germans.

"A party of uhlans entered Amiens," says the Mail. "After a brief reconnoissance they retired to the German main body at Camon. A half hour ported to have been annihilated by the later they returned, accompanied by an envoy bearing a white flag. The latter interviewed Mayor Figuet at the

"After an hour's discussion the mayor appeared in front of the town nounced the surrender of the city. He in the battle of Jadar: urged that the citizens make no dis-

"Later the mayor and the municipal pay a formal visit to the Grman com- 114 full caisons containing 500 shells left wing of the allies. The enemy has mander, who told them that they would for each cannon, ammunition and 4,600 been compelled to retire on St. Quen-Roumania has announced officially for the good conduct of the citizens. officers and one military bank with that was advancing on Compeigne was neutrality, it will be to follow the the town hall, where they hauled down boxes full of money and one aeroplane abandon several pieces of artillery. It sted the German colors. The German troops en-United States that she would look with tered the city, singing as they came favor on the sending of American war- 'Die Wacht am Rhein' and 'Deutsch-

RUSSIANS CAPTURE LEMBERG

Austrians Cut to Pieces at Capital of Galicia-Are Practically Out of the War.

London,-A Times dispatch from Petrograd (St. Petersburg) says: "Army headquarters reports that thanks to their highly developed railway system, superior German forces concentrated from all parts on the front and flung themselves against about two of our army corps. These were exposed to an extremely violent fire from the big guns, which inflicted large losses.

"According to reports received here, our troops fought heroically. Gens. Samsonoff, Martos and Pestitch and several staff officers have fallen. All possible measures to amend this distressing event are being taken.

"On the Austrian front stubborn fighting continues."

London.-The first hundred thous and recruits who responded to Lord Kitchener's appeal have gone into training in various parts of the country and men are enrolling at a much quicker rate for the second hundred thousand.

Valley of Somme Taken. London.-A French dispatch to the Times says: "The Valley of the Somme has been abandoned. La Fere has been taken, after a bloody combat. We were obliged to retire.

"The right wing of the Germans." center and right in Lorraine and the says the correspondent, "is too far advanced, and there is a chance that it will be cut and caught between two fires if the British should be found in ment begun between the allied army force. Our center is resting very well, and the right wing of our army appears to be taking the offensive."

> Paris.-A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Ostend says that the Inthority for the statement that the town at a great height and dropped two bombs. There was no loss of of Brussels and that cemeteries have life." been transformed fnto redoubts.

Ottawa.-The Canadian government it was learned, is considering canceling German patents and copyrights held in Canada. The question is bethat the British casualties during the ing discussed with the British board of trade.

Jipks-My wife let me have the last

"What of that?" "That shows that she is going to do

AUSTRIANS BEATEN AGAIN BY RUSSIA

AUSTRIAN RETREAT BECAME A ROUT, COSSACKS PURSUING. BATTLE LASTS OVER WEEK.

GERMANS TO THE RESCUE

Colossal Battle Extends for About 620 Miles, and Three Million Russians and Austrians Are Engaged.

London-A dispatch from Petrograd quotes an official statement as declaring that the Russians have defeated the Austrians between Lublin

Five thousand Austrians were taken prisoners.

A Milan dispatch to the Daily Mail says the Russians have occupied Czernowitz without resistance.

Geneva (via Paris).-Reports reach ing here from Italy declare the entire Austrian army has been flung back on the Carpathians. Their retreat, the report says, is becoming a rout, with Cossacks pursuing the Austrians. According to reports from Berlin, great numbers of German troops are being withdrawn from the French and Ges man frontiers. These soldiers, with forces from Bayaria and Wurtemberg. are going to the Vistula to meet the Russians.

London.-A Vienna dispatch, sent by indirect route to the Exchange Tel- to the press bureau here:

egraph Company, says: "This is the seventh day of the cothe Dniester in the south.

"The Russians were burning for a fight in the south, and their supreme more than on preceding days. effort was directed toward annihilaton Germany.

JADAR CALLED A SHAMBLES.

Austrian Dead Estimated at Between 30,000 and 32,000-Many Guns Have Been Captured.

Nish, Servia.-According to the official organ Srpski Novine, the followhall with trumpeters and oficially an- ing spoil was captured by the Servians

A hundred cannon, of which 92 were field guns, eight siege guns, 2,500 councillors drove out in carriages to 37 mitralleuses, 37,000 mauser rifles, last two days under pressure from the be held responsible with their lives prisoners, including a large number of tin. A big force of German cavalry "The Germans thereupon went to its conductor. Three regimental cash vigorously repulsed and forced to

The Austrian dead are estimated to the allies' left wing was frustrated." number between 30,000 and 32,000. Gen, Yovanovitch reports that he alone had 10,000 of the enemy's bodies buried. Other Servian generals' reports of their successes have not yet been received.

ALLIES IN STUBBORN MOOD All Northern Forts of France, With

Exception of Maubeuge, Claimed by the Germans Paris,-An official communication was issued here announcing that three forts had fallen at Maubeuge, a for tress of the first class in Nord. A further official statement says: "The press bureau at Bordeaux telegraphed to the military governor of "First-The respective situations of movement of the enemy has been definitely checked. "Second - The situation is in Lorraine and the Vosges.

"At Paris, from which the enemy's armies are going farther away, the de- trian troops. fensive works are proceeding actively. ,"At Maubeuge the bombardment the Russians have taken more than continues with extreme violence. The 200 guns, several regimental colors city resists despite the destruction of three forts."

The following communication was issued by the governor of Paris: "The German army continues to move farther away from Paris toward the southeast. "According to information, the ene-gion of Compiegne and Senlis."

offensive tactics to find a weak spot. erpool. Dropped Bombs on Ghent. London.A dispatch to the Reuter elegram Compan from Chent says: "A Taube aeroplane passed over the War Levy Imposed. London.-A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Ostend

that a war levy of $40,000,000 has been did no damage. The aviator, to avoid imposed in the district by the Ger- the fire of the Belfort forts, made a

Preparing for a Lecture. "Pop!"

"Yes, my son." "I think I'll make a trip to the North Pole when I'm older." "I always said you took after your mother. She always wants to lecture Freddie-How is it you've never read Rabelais and Boccacio?" Willie-Books of that kind very tame to a kid after he's had a course in sex hygiene.-Puck.

PRESIDENT POINCARE A new portrait of M. Poincare, presdent of the French republic.

GERMAN RIGHT IS STOPPED

tons Win in Center. Paris.-The war office at Bordeaux late sent the following communication

Invaders Reach Rheims, but Maubeuge

Holds Out-Violent Fighting-Teu-

"On our left the enemy appears to neglect Paris to pursue its turning lossal battle, in which about 3,000,000 movement. It has reached La Fere-Russians and Austrians are engaged. Fous-Jouarre (department of Seine and The battle front extends along about Marne, 11 miles east of Meaux), 20 miles from Prussia in the north to passed Rheims and descended on the west bank of the river in Argonne. This maneuver has not succeeded

"On our right, in Lorraine and in region, and thus remove it from their ternative fortunes. Maubeuge, which jously defeated. flank before beginning the real attack is being violently bombarded, resists vigerously."

London.-A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company from Antwerp. reaching here by way of Ostend, says that it seems that the attempt of the Germans to envelop the left wing of the allies has been frustrated. A big force of German cavalry advancing on Complegne has been repulsed and obliged to abandon several pieces of artillery. The correspondent says: "It is learned on good authority that the advance movement of the German horses, three hospitals of 3,000 beds, right wing has been checked for the

AUSTRIAN ARMY IS ROUTED

40,000 Prisoners Taken by Russians in East Prussia-Over 200 Guns Were Captured.

Petrograd (St. Petersburg).-The ollowing official report on the sevenday battle, in which five Austrian army corps were forced to retreat in utter rout, suffering the loss of 40,-000 prisoners, besides a tremendous loss in killed and wounded, was given out by the war office here: "Seven days of the most stubborn fighting in Eastern Galicia have resulted in complete victory for the Russian arms. Five Austrian army corps were completely routed and are retreating in disorder to the westward, abandonig their arms and bagthe German and French armies on the gage. Besides an enormous number left wing have not undergone any in- of killed, the Austrians lost no fewer teresting change. The enveloping than 40,000 prisoners, including many generals. "The roads of retreat of the Austrians are so incumbered with their changed in the center and on the right carts, guns and impedimenta pursuing troops are unable to use the roads. Panic is spreading among the Aus-

> "During the seven days of fighting and about 70,000 prisoners in all en

RUSSIANS TO HELP IN FRANCE

New York .- A Russian army of 72,-900 men, transported from Archangel, my's troops have evacuated the re-Russia, was landed at Aberdeen, on the east coast of Scotland, and con-Military critics of most of the veyed on special trains to Harwich, French papers, whose hypotheses are Grimsby and Dover, where transports without official support, agree that were waiting to take them to Ostend, the Germans found the entrenched in Belgium, according to officers and camp of the allies around Paris too passengers of the Cunard liner Maurestrong and suddenly interrupted their tania, which reached here from Liv > Lull in Fighting. Paris.-In an official statement the war office says: "There has been no contact with the German forces in the region of tions have been taken to stop any of fensive movement of the enemy." Belfort, France.-A German aero plane dropped several shells here, quotes reservists from Lille as saying The missiles made much noise, but detour over Swiss territory. Cool, Secluded Spot. Church-He said he was going to spend the afternoon in some cool, secluded spot. Gotham-Went out into the country. suppose? "No, he went home and spent the re-nainder of the day in the bathtub."

Complegne and Senlis lately. Precau-

A Happy Man. Father of Eight-Yes, the last of my daughters was married yesterday. Friend-Indeed! Who was the happy

Father of Eight-I was,-Judge.

Doctors Gave Him Up

The Contract of the second

A Music Teacher Saved From A Catarrhal Disease By

Peruna. Prof. W. L. Perkins, Waynesboro,

Va., writes: "I was under the care of a doctor for four months, but did not improve at all. At last he gave me up to die of bronchial catarrh. So I thought I would try a bottle of Peruna. I began to feel better at once. Now I feel as well as I ever did in my life. I want to thank you, Dr. Hartman, for your advice. I shall always praise your Peruna for catarrh of the lungs."

Pettit's Eye Salve SORE EYES WAR SPIRIT IN THE NURSERY

Small Scions of Princely European Houses Take the Infection From Their Elders.

Even in the midst of war the human element remains. This little story came from Berlin the day before war had been declared on France:

Two little grandsons of Kaiser Wilhelm, children of the crown prince, appear to have inherited the martial temperatment of their ancestors. The eldest, Prince Wilhelm, somehow got hold of the fact that the prince imperial of 1870 went to the front in the Franco-Prussian war and asked his mother, "Shall I go?" "Yes," said the crown princess, "but grandpapa will put off the war for 15 years, when you will be grown up." The young princes play all day at "Austrians and Russians," a newly invented military game, which consists in knocking over rows of sand piles, ing the entire Austrian army in that Vosges, the fighting proceeds with al- and the Russians are always ignomin-

Little County Zchichy, a six-year-old relative of Austria's ambassador at Berlin, who has been staying at the seaside near the family of the Prussian crown prince, is the local hero. He stole away and, armed with a tin sword and a genuinte pistol without ammunition, proposed to go to the front, but was ingloriously captured by the enemy-a fat Pomeranian nurse

Look for the Woman. Woman is at the bottom of many of the industries of the world, and strange to say just now she is responsible for the revival of the shark trade. It seems that shagreen is a special part of a shark's skin which lends itself admirably to a variety of delicate dyes, and it has now become very popular for the fittings of toilet cases and the backs of mirrors and brushes. There is an increasing dejewel cases, candlesticks and flower vases are made of the materall, which is dyed in accordance with the furnishings of the room.

Professional Advice. "You'll have to keep quiet for six weeks," said the doctor, solemnly, "Six weeks!" echoed the active politician. "I thought you were a physi-

"Then what I want from you is a prescription, not a penance."

The Beggar's Retort. She-I shan't give you anything because I suspect you aren't blind at all. He-That may be, but I can assure you there are moments when I wish I

Heavy Enough. Mrs. Flatte-This paper says almost half of many thousand loaves of bread recently tested in London were short Seeking Information. "What's the profesor playing?" "A little impromptu." "Yes, yes, but who composed it?"

Even the sarcastic woman cuts out her cutting remarks when she has an

Mr. Flatte-No such charge can ever be brought against your bread, dear,

Most family hotels have all the discomforts of a home.

FOOD FACTS What An M. D. Learned.

ax to grind.

through a food experience which he makes public. "It was my own experience that first led me to advocate Grape-Nuts food and I also know, from having prescribed it to convalescents and other weak patients, that the food is a wonderful rebuilder and restorer of nerve and brain tissue, as well as muscle. It improves the digestion and

A prominent Georgia physician went sick patients gain very rapidly, just as I did in strength and weight. "I was in such a low state that I had to give up my work entirely, and went to the mountains of this state. but two months there did not improve me; in fact, I was not quite as well as when I left home. "My food did not sustain me and a it became plain that I must change. Then I began to use Grape-Nuts food and in two weeks I could walk a mile without ratigue, and in five weeks returned to my home and practice, taking up hard work again. Since that time I have felt as well and strong as I ever did in my life. "As a physician who seeks to help all sufferers, I consider it a duty to make these facts public." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Trial 10 days of Grape-Nuts, when regular food does not seem to sustain the body, works wonders. "There's a Look in pags. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Ever read the above letter? A one appears from time to time. are grants, true, and full of hu interest.